

In a democracy, we cannot allow large media corporations to control what they believe constitutes "news." Even though Sinclair has scaled back its original plan to air commentary as a 42-minute news item, I, like millions of other Americans, know what the media giant intends to do, and it should not be allowed. The citizens and taxpayers of our nation expect this Commission to sit up, take notice, and take action.